

VILLA SAN GIACOMO

International University College

OUR STUDENTS

- Young men and women who share a Christian vision
- At the beginning or mid-way through their university studies
- Part of a community where students and staff support each other in a spirit of enthusiasm, understanding, and generosity

For more than fifty years Villa san Giacomo has been hosting students from Italy and around the world. In its tranquil setting, Villa san Giacomo provides a welcoming environment for students as part of its Christian ethos that nourishes spiritual development alongside academic excellence. A university college of the Church of Bologna, Villa san Giacomo was founded by the late Cardinal Giacomo Lercaro and supports up to fifty places a year, including accommodation and meals alongside outstanding study and leisure facilities. Students can apply for a full or part-funded place according to their economic circumstances.
